Los Angeles, November 18, 2021 – Tufenkian Fine Arts is excited to announce, Holiday Show 2021, a group show celebrating the artists who were featured in our exhibitions throughout the year. We are ending the year with a show highlighting a diverse selection of paintings, sculptures, installation pieces, and drawings by gallery artists that we have exhibited over the years. This year, continuing the annual tradition, Tufenkian Fine Arts will showcase artworks from a wide range of artists, from emerging to mid-career and established artists. The exhibition will run from Tuesday, November 30 and will be on view through Thursday, December 23.

The selection of artworks by Wendy Adest, Andrea Aragon, Garen Bedrossian, Vahe Berberian, Fatemeh Burnes, Sigrid Burton, Kaye Freeman, Tanner Goldbeck, Sam Grigorian, Jennifer Gunlock, Mary Addison Hackett, Richard Hoblock, Diane Holland, Gegam Kacherian, Moko Khachatryan, Farzad Kohan, Noel Korten, Roger Kupelian, Erika Lizée, Luigia Gio Martelloni, John David O'Brien, Paul Paiement, Vahan Rumelyan, Razmik Samvelts, Arthur Sarkissian, Arshak Sarkissian, Danny Shain, Serj Tankian, and Torie Zalben for Holiday Show 2021 was meant as a laudatory gesture towards the artists who helped make this year so special at Tufenkian Fine Arts.

The artworks in this year's holiday show span a multitude of visual languages and expressions, ranging from mixed media works on panel, to a found driftwood installation and a neon plexiglass sculpture coated in encaustic. The selection of artworks for Holiday Show 2021 serves as a compass for alternative aesthetic narratives, helping us as viewers navigate the multifarious complexities of the art world while concurrently celebrating the varied practices of our gallery artists.
